

NAMI Berks County, PA National Alliance on Mental Illness

A Free Public Mental Health Education Series Presentation
Tuesday June 25, 7:00pm

Self and Community Advocacy - Why Bother?

Lloyd G. Wertz, M.S.
Vice President, Policy and Program
Family Training and Advocacy Center

What is the safety net when the safety net fails?

- What Services are Essential to support the Seriously Mentally Ill Consumer?
- Treatment in the Corrections System
- Mental Health Community Programs
- Tools of Advocacy
- Creating Legislative Relationships
- Essential Learning – the Advocate Toolbox

Location:

McGlenn Conference Center, Alvernia University, 460 St. Bernadine St., Reading PA 19607
From Rt. 422 by-pass exit for Lancaster Ave., take immediate left onto Rt. 10 south, travel about 2 mi., look for large Alvernia University sign on right, follow about .5 mile, arrive at entry lane on left.
RSVP appreciated NAMI Berks County PA 610-685-3000. Call for additional information.