

What is the NAMI Peer-to-Peer Education Program?

NAMI Peer-to-Peer is a free, 8-session course for adults living with mental health conditions. NAMI Peer-to-Peer provides an educational setting focused on recovery that offers respect, understanding, encouragement and hope. The NAMI Peer-to-Peer education program is:

- Free and confidential
- Held once a week for two and a half hours
- Taught by trained Peer Mentors living in recovery themselves
- A great resource for information on mental health and recovery

The Peer-to-Peer Education Program begins
Friday, March 13, 1:30 to 4:00pm in the Reading area.
Class will meet each Friday from March 13 through May 1, 2020.
Location provided with registration.

Participant Perspectives

“This course has literally been a life saver. It has opened my eyes to better understanding my illness and methods of recovery I did not know about before taking NAMI Peer-to-Peer.”

“Since taking the course I have gained employment and committed to my recovery.”

“NAMI Peer-to-Peer gave me a better understanding of the mental illness I have and how to manage it.”
